Re: Atty Docket No. 9319G-000276
U.S. Patent No. 6,987,503 - Issued: January 17, 2006
Title: ELECTROPHORETIC DISPLAY
Inventor: Satoshi INOUE

Sir:

David Irwin of the Certificate of Corrections branch emailed the undersigned regarding a previously filed request for Certificate of Correction (copy enclosed). My reply is also set forth in the enclosure. It appears that the Notices of References cited by the Examiner in an Office Action mailed December 24, 2003 (copy enclosed) was not scanned into the PAIR system even though it is part of the official record.

Therefore, the patentee requests that these references be included in the attached revised Certificate of Correction.

Since these errors were made by the Patent Office, no fees appear to be due. However, please charge Epson R&D Deposit Account No. 50-3213 for any fees which may nonetheless turn out to be due.

Respectfully submitted,

By:

Hi David,

The references were cited by the Examiner in the attached Office Action (see last page) .

Also, we forgot to include the article listed under Non-Patent Documents in our first request. Consequently, we are also attaching a "Revised" Certificate for your use.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Greg

Subject: Re: Pat. No. 6,987,503

• Good afternoon, Mr Schivley,

•
I am handling your request for a certificate of correction. You indicate that the PTO omitted a number of references, but I am unable to locate the sheet that would verify your claim. Could you fax a copy of said sheet to 571-270-9806? Thanks very much.
